Bradford's Exchange

Bill Bradford
ECIA President & CEO

Bill Bradford, ECIA's president and CEO, offers a monthly look at the state of the association and industry.

Adaptive Leadership Part Two: Principles for Leading Adaptive Change

In last month's article (June 2019 Bradford Exchange) we discussed the ever increasingly complex challenges we face in our industry. Dr. Ronald Heifetz notes that they require advanced methods of adaptive leadership to solve. Heifetz offers six principles for leaders dealing with adaptive challenges. The first two of those are discussed in more detail, read the complete article.

Webinar: The Future of Data Protection & Privacy

Empower Your Sales Team with the Sales Professional Training Camp

Limited Space: 2019 Sales Training Workshops

Training continues to be a top focus of successful companies. Through your ECIA membership, you have access to a variety of training options throughout the year.

Join Don Buttrey, President of Sales Professional Training, Inc., for two and a half days of intensive sales training. Your sales team will gain the skills they need for strategic selling that drives results. Not only will they be expertly guided through The Four Pillars of the Sales Professional course, but registration includes training materials, a work binder and electronic course tools they can use for continued success.

The Sales Professional Training Camp is ideal for rookie and veteran sales professionals, managers and sales support professionals who want to improve their effectiveness and profitability.

The next session will be August 13-15, 2019 in Dayton, Ohio. Space is limited to 50 attendees - and it's easy to register. Indicate your ECIA membership to secure the rate of $945.00.

Can't make this training? Another workshop is scheduled for November 12-14, 2019.

ECIAauthorized Provides Access to Genuine Parts

The ECIAauthorized.com site was created by ECIA, in collaboration with its members, to support the authorized electronic components industry. It gives users access to aggregated price and availability data for genuine parts from only authorized sources.

The site provides a free service to purchasing professionals, design engineers and anyone in need of electronic components price and availability information from authorized distributors. All the distributors that participate on the site are required to be members of ECIA. Contact Victor Meijers for more detailed information.
