FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ECIA Releases New Episode of “Channel Channel” Podcast: Louise Forrest of Compliance & Risks

Atlanta – On the latest episode of ECIA’s podcast “The Channel Channel”, Vice President of Industry Practices Don Elario interviews Louise Forrest, who is with ECIA’s newest Service Partner, Compliance & Risks. The company is recognized as the end to end global regulatory solutions provider across the technology, consumer goods and retail, industrial goods and life sciences sectors. Louise serves as Senior Content Project Manager and has led the regulatory compliance team for the past five years.

The podcast conversation covers the role the organization plays in helping companies understand and respond to the explosion of global regulations pertaining to the environment and consumer safety. The two talk about how regulatory deadlines are impacted by the Covid-19 crisis, the new SCIP database requirements for the electronics industry; data protection regulations for the billions of connected IoT devices; how Brexit will impact the EU REACH rules and much more.

“With all that’s going on in the world right now, our members need the latest information surrounding regulatory and compliance areas,” noted Elario. “Ms. Forrest’s organization is fully focused on the key global regulations that impact our industry. This podcast provides an update on some of the most pressing deadlines.”

The interview can be downloaded from <https://www.ecianow.org/podcasts> or other podcast sites.
